Turkey Premier Having Trouble

ANKARA, Turkey (AP) — Prime Minister Ismet Inonu failed to win clearcut support from Parliament today on his government's handling of the Cyprus issue and announced he intended to resign.

Inonu, who formed a minority government at Christmas time last year, had been scheduled to go to Washington this weekend to confer with President Johnson on the Cyprus crisis which involves communal fighting between Cypriots of Turkish descent and those of Greek descent. The latter far outnumber the former.

Hits Faubus' Political Machine

JONESBORO, Ark. (AP) — Gubernatorial candidate R. D. Burrow of Walnut Ridge said Thursday night that the Faubus administration "is a political machine that takes our hard-earned dollars and returns to us dimes in benefits."

Burrow, a hardware store owner, appeared on a 15-minute television program over KAIT, Jonesboro. The program is sponsored by his store and he usually uses it to display his wares. He says, however, that until the July 28 Democratic primary the program will be "strictly political."

Burrow said Arkansas must rid itself of machine politics if it is to continue to grow. He characterized the Faubus "machine" as "ruthless and clever."

Burrow said Faubus had led old age pensioners to believe that their benefits would be cut off if Faubus is defeated.

"Such is not the case," he said. "The federal government pays most of each dollar you receive and you have for years failed to receive what you should."

Burrow said he will increase pensions 50 per cent if he is elected.

Parents Can See Results of Tests

Earl Downs of Hope High School advises parents of students from grades five through 12 who would like to discuss their child's testing results to call for appointment at the high school office. Conferences start at 7 p.m. Monday, June 22.

Bill Worth $15 Million to State

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Three federal employees told representatives of state agencies Thursday that President Johnson's anti-poverty program could bring as much as $15 million in to Arkansas within a year.

Richard Boone and James Sunkist of the Agriculture Department and Dr. Brice Beckford of the University of Missouri, temporarily working on the President's economic opportunity proposal, outlined the program at a meeting arranged by the state Planning Commission.

Ted Moreley, director of the commission, said the discussion of the program's scope was general since Congress could amend sections of the proposal. Moreley said the officials said the program was geared to start Sept. 1 if Congress acts on the proposal by then.

20 Killed by Guerrillas in Viet Nam

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Communist guerrillas blew up four cars of a crowded passenger train Thursday and killed 20 Vietnamese in one of the worst instances of terrorism directed against civilians. Forty were injured.

Victims were being taken from the twisted and gutted wreckage today by Vietnamese rescue crews who had labored all through the night.

American sources said many women and children were aboard the train, traveling from Nha Trang to Saigon to visit relatives. The explosion occurred about 10 miles south of Nha Trang, a coastal resort.

Helicopters took the injured to military hospitals.

Most of those killed died in the initial explosions of a series of land mines detonated by guerrillas hiding in a jungle along the track. Nearly all the injured were caught in fires that swept through two crowded cars.

Three cars were overturned and a fourth derailed in the explosions.

Trains along Viet Nam's north-south line are mined constantly, but never before have the Viet Cong gone deliberately after civilian passengers.

American military men in Nha Trang express belief it was directed deliberately at civilians and may indicate an increase in terrorism throughout the countryside. The death toll has been rising in recent weeks as a result of civilian buses being mined on lonely country roads by Communists.

Officials in Nha Trang said the train was carrying no military supplies.

Conviction of Murder Upheld

ST. LOUIS (AP) — The 8th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals here upheld Thursday a second-degree murder conviction against Raymond Roberts on a charge of slaying a Little Rock physician.

U.S. Judge J. Smith Henley sentenced Roberts to life in prison in connection with the death of Dr. Keith Herlocker, who was shot at Ft. Roots Veterans Administration Hospital in North Little Rock on March 4, 1963. Herlocker died two days later.

Rights Bill to Be Passed by Late Friday

By JOE HALL

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate exploded into a round of sharp and bitter debate today as the hour neared for final passage of the civil rights bill.

Southern senators voiced irritation and resentment at what they said were attempts by Northerners to lecture them on racial matters about which the Northerners were wholly ignorant.

At one point Sen. George A. Smathers, D-Fla., shouted to Sen. John O. Pastore, D-R.I., "Not one word does the senator from Rhode Island know what he is talking about!"

Smathers, usually mild-mannered, had been arguing that in most places in the South, Negroes never were turned away at drugstores and other places of public accommodation.

"At the lunch counter?" Pastore demanded. "If the senator believes that, he hasn't been reading the newspapers."

"You've been reading the wrong newspapers," Smathers came back. "One of the things I resent is how they blow some of these incidents up out of all proportion."

It appeared improbable the Senate would get to a final vote before very late in the day at the earliest. In view of this, House leaders abandoned plans to hold the House in session to receive the Senate bill. They also gave up the idea of a Saturday session and adjourned the House until Monday.

There was no prospect of being able to pass the bill immediately in the House anyway because of the opposition of Rep. Howard W. Smith, D-Va., chairman of the Rules Committee, and other Southern Democrats.

A single member's objection can prevent immediate action and shut the bill to the Rules Committee where Smith intends to use his powers to delay the inevitable final passage as long as possible.

Under House rules that is about eight days, and the leaders now plan to start the eight-day wait Monday, bringing the

Asks for All Foreign Aid Requested

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson's foreign aid chief urged the Senate today to authorize his full $3.5-billion request as "the tight, realistic minimum" needed in the struggle against communism and poverty.

David E. Bell, administrator of the Agency for International Development — AID — carried on Johnson's fight before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee as the President's stand against any cuts stirred up hornet's nest in the House Appropriations Committee.

The outlook is that Johnson will win, or come close to victory when an 11-member House Appropriations subcommittee sits down next week to make the initial money decisions even before the Senate acts on the authorization bill which sets ceilings for foreign aid spending.

Bell testified at a closed session. A copy of his opening statement was made public.

But attention was concentrated on what the House Appropriations subcommittee, headed by Rep. Otto Passman, D-La., may do.

This subcommittee has a history of cutting the aid program, the House usually sustains Passman's recommendations after they clear the 50-member parent Appropriations Committee. Passman claims the cuts have exceeded $8 billion in nine years as chairman.

Log Rolls Off Truck, Hits Car

About mid-afternoon yesterday a chain securing logs broke and a log rolled off a White Lumber Co. truck in process of turning West off Main Street. The log rolled across the street and barely bumped a parked auto owned by George W. Lingo, causing only minor damage.

A lift had to be called from the local mill to load the heavy log back on the truck.

Quake Again Rocks City in Japan

NIIGATA, Japan (AP) — Another earthquake rocked this northern port city tonight as it struggled with the aftermath of Tuesday's quake—Japan's most violent in 40 years.

Buildings already weakened on Tuesday suffered damage. But there were no immediate reports of new deaths or injuries.

U.S. Air Force planes parachuted another 14 tons of fire fighting chemical foam to Niigata's weary firemen at dusk. A pilot said a block-square storage tank complex on the waterfront was still burning fiercely, shooting flames 300 to 400 feet into the air, as his plane made a pass over the stricken city.

A few minutes before the new quake, Niigata's fire chief said the fire was being contained in the ocean-front refinery area where more than 90 storage tanks went up in flames after Tuesday's quake.

The quake ripped across an 11 - prefecture area, killing a known total of 25, injuring more than 400, and leaving thousands homeless.

New President of B&PW Installed

Mrs. Hazel Prichard, librarian of Hempstead-Nevada Regional Library and Southwest Arkansas Regional Library, was installed as president of Hope B and PW club at the June meeting at the Diamond Cafe.

Rosa Harrie who is a past president of the local club, installed the officers. They are: Mrs. Norma Jean Delaney, first vice-president; Miss Velora Bright, second vice-president; Mrs. Opal Hervey, recording secretary; Mrs. Dora Fenwick, corresponding secretary, and Miss Margie Vickers, treasurer.

LBJ Scoffs at States Rights in Dig at Goldwater

CONCORD, Calif. (AP) — President Johnson scoffed today at staunch advocates of states rights, saying those who view the United States as 50 separate countries are "as out of date as the dinosaur."

Johnson presumably intended his remarks to be applied to the camp of Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona, leading contender for the Republican presidential nomination. However, Goldwater doubtless would quarrel with any suggestion that he sees the United States as a collection of separate countries.

This was the second installment of a frankly political message that Johnson carried to vote-heavy California at the outset of a three-day tour.

Stopping earlier to view late model military and spacecraft at Edwards Air Force Base in the Mojave Desert, Johnson reminded a crowd of several thousand that California has reaped $21 billion of defense contracts during the Kennedy-Johnson years.

The chief executive flew to Concord, 30 miles east of San Francisco, to break ground for the bay area's 75-mile rapid-transit system.

Arguing that the federal government has a responsibility to help solve big-city transit problems, Johnson said:

"The idea that we are 50 separate countries, that the federal government — representing the destiny of 190 million people — does not have a duty to meet the needs of these people — this idea is as out of date as the dinosaur."

Johnson went on to say he did not believe the American people "want to run a losing race with change" and he said, "we do not intend to permit America to stagnate."

The President said pressing transit problems "require us to create new concepts of cooperation—a creative federalism—between the federal government, state governments and local communities."

This, he said, is the aim of the administration - sponsored urban mass-transit program, passed by the Senate and awaiting House action.

Rapid transit is a hot political issue in the bay area, where voters approved a $792-million bond issue to start work on the system Johnson hailed as a "victory of vision."

Goldwater Will Vote Against Rights Issue

By WALTER R. MEARS

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater accused Pennsylvania Gov. William C. Scranton today of asking him to sell out his principles by supporting the civil rights bill Goldwater said he will oppose.

Goldwater, the leading candidate for the Republican presidential nomination, asked in a telegram to his rival if Scranton wasn't "asking me to sell out my principles and aren't you, in effect, saying that unless I do, I will be punished by not receiving the nomination?"

Goldwater told Scranton that if he would study the civil rights bill, which the Senate is expected to pass today, he would find its provisions contrary to "Republican regard for the Constitution."

Goldwater has announced he will vote against the measure because he regards as unconstitutional its provisions for elimination of discrimination in public accommodations and in employment.

He replied in a telegram to a statement by Scranton that his decision on the civil rights measure means Goldwater would be unable to defeat President Johnson next November.

But a Southern Democrat, Sen. Allen J. Ellender of Louisiana, says that if Goldwater, front-runner for the GOP nomination, votes against the measure, he could carry the South against the President.

Their reactions came shortly after Goldwater had told the Senate late Thursday he is "unalterably opposed to discrimination of any sort" but is opposed to the bill because two sections of it "fly in the face of the Constitution."

He said he feels these two sections — the public accommodations and equal employment titles — are a threat to individual freedoms.

Goldwater is known to feel that the reaction to his decision might knock out of his column some of his Republican National Convention delegates.

But the Arizona senator insisted Thursday he had voted as a matter of principle, not of political expediency.

One possible effect: To underscore the differences between

McClellan Blasts Civil Rights Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., said Thursday that enforcement of the multiple, restrictive provisions of the civil rights bill will eventually lead to its repeal.

He charged in a Senate speech that the bill was the most ill-conceived, deceptive, vicious and iniquitous legislation that ever engaged serious consideration of Congress.

McClellan said that he thought time and subsequent events would prove the righteousness of "our Southern call."

"Never in my experience have I witnessed in the legislative process a measure that contains more pernicious, brutal and vindictive provisions than those embodied in the several titles of this act," he said.

McClellan added that vesting of such enormous power in federal authority is tantamount to sowing the seed of dictatorship in the field of democracy.

He said instead of calling the bill the Civil Rights Act, a better name would be the Civil Rights Assassination Act of 1964. From the beginning the measure has been "steeped in illegal and unauthorized procedures," he said, since consideration of it by the Senate Judiciary Committee was denied and it has been debated under "gag rules."

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — "The Beverly Hillbillies" may be our most popular television show, but it hasn't even caused a ripple of laughter among viewers of the Philippine Islands.
The most popular program
now seen on the islands' 100,000 television sets is a whodunit series called "Crisis." On NBC here it's called "Suspense Theatre." Other perennial favorites are "The Defenders," "Twilight Zone" the Walt Disney Show,
"Perry Mason"—and recent feature movies released to television.
P. K. Macker, publisher of the English-language Philippines Herald and manager of three of the islands' TV stations, currently is on a $250,000 shopping trip in New York and Hollywood for at least 20 programs.
"Of course we like comedy,"
he said. "But most of your comedy shows are just not understood by our viewers. Funny lines about Las Vegas don't mean a thing to them. They've never seen hillbillies or even heard of them. They don't have the same political problems, suburban life or even the same kind of reading material. The result is that the comedy just isn't funny."

"I've been in the Philippines only for three years and a lot of the TV jokes are pointless for me."

He has been sampling an average of 10 programs a day during his New York visit, ranging from the serious "Profiles in Courage," based on the John F.
Kennedy book, to "Peyton Place," based on a spicy bestseller.

"From the standpoint of the foreign audience, next year's product is the best I've seen,"
he said. "Most shows would go very well."

Philippine audiences, although they do not find our comedy shows very funny do have some what similar fads. Westerns, once popular, are now beginning to lose their glamor, he said.
War shows are holding up well.

Michael Dann, CBS programming vice president already hard at work lining up programs for the TV season after next, believes that "the hospital show and the lawyer show have had it, and it appears that the next thing that will be popular will be a modified Western form — emphasis on character, not shooting."

Nova 6-Passenger Station Wagon

CHEVY II by Chevrolet

If you thought Chevy II was thrifty before, you should see your Chevrolet dealer now

You couldn't pick a better time to buy one!
Wagons. Sedans. Sporty Sport Coupes. Take your pick. They're all tightwads.

The Nova wagon for instance, like all the Chevy II's, adjusts its own brakes. It's got a Delcotron generator to lengthen a battery's life. The engines are real gas scoogers. And the rocker panels take in rain water to flush themselves free of rust-causing elements.

Inside the Nova wagon, where you can seat six anglers with tackle boxes, there's deep-twist carpeting surrounded by vinyl that's as washable as tile. Behind that, a storage area with as much room as the insides of seven good-sized refrigerators.

Your Chevrolet dealer has many more details that may interest you. Why don't you two get together and make some vacation plans.

"DEAR ABBY"

By Abigail Van Buren

Dear Abby: I read in your column that a woman was in doubt about what to put on her mother's headstone. The mother had been married twice, and the daughter wanted to use only her mother's FIRST husband's name. You said, "It's your mother, and you are paying for the monument, so go ahead and put whatever you want on it," or words to that effect. Believe it or not, Abby, in some states, the name on a grave memorial is considered by the Bureau of Vital Statistics to be legal proof of death, and to use any other name other than the legal name of the deceased at the time of death is illegal. So, the daughter, should have her mother's headstone marked with her mother's given name, her first husband's surname, and her second husband's surname. Example: Mary Smith Jones.

A Monument Dealer in Flag-

Staff
Dear Dealer: Thank you for setting me (and 50 million readers) straight. When I make a boo-boo, it's monumental! Correction: In marking a headstone it is not daughter's choice. It's dealer's choice. And he knows what's legal so ask him.

Dear Abby: Please print this so someone else won't make the same mistake I made: Five months ago a very attractive friend called me at my place of work and said he was in the process of getting a divorce, and asked if I would have coffee with him. I accepted. Next there were lunch dates. Then dinner and evening dates. He told me he loved me and I told him I loved him. (I really did.) We started making plans for "our" future. People began to talk, but I didn't care because I knew it was only a matter of time and he would be free to marry me. Today he and his wife are back together. The man who

We arrived at the Lido at just about the right time. I paid the driver the meter sum and gave him an extra large tip. He'd stuck by me even when he was scared, so he'd earned it.

Dear Abby: I have a married daughter who has become very fat, sloppy, and lazy. Her house is a mess and she spends all of her time reading or talking on the telephone. She shouts at her children and expects her hard-working husband to do her house work on the weekends. He is ashamed to bring anyone to the house and I am sure the children are not very proud of their mother or home. Should I have a talk with her and try to set her straight? Or does a mother's duty end after her daughter gets married?

WORRIED MOTHER
Dear Mother: A mother's "duty" ends when her children become of age. But her love and concern for their happiness and well-being continues as long as she lives. Yes, have a talk with your daughter. It would appear that she needs more than a "talk" or a reprimand. Take her to a physician or a much-needed checkup and diet.

Dear Abby: How can a person address an invitation to a wedding reception to make it known that only adults are wanted? Ours is going to be a catered wedding reception and we will be charged by the plate. We have a large family and don't want to feed a gang of kids. Can we put "Positively Adults Only" on the invitations?

MUST KNOW
Dear Must: It is considered poor taste to put "Adults Only" on an invitation. Speak with those whom you suspect might bring their children, and tell them firmly but diplomatically that the kiddies are not invited.

there's a million dollars in insurance to be paid out. With only a month to work on it, there was no time for orthodox methods."

"Clark and the Carrier Workers?"

I nodded. "I got action on that right away. I tried it in Cleveland. When I arrived in Washington I went to see Johnny Clark. He was expecting me. I told him my ideas. When I left his office he sent two of his trained seals to follow me. They're still somewhere outside."

"Who're the two men?"

"One is Jerry Dell. I don't know who the other is. I had a small altercation with Dell this morning and knocked him down."

"I noticed you were carrying a gun," he said drily. "Dell is a tough baby. He was a contract killer for the syndicate before he went to work for Clark, but nobody's pinned anything on him since he was arrested for carrying a gun at the age of 16."

"The theory has always been that Rako was fixed at the hotel until 7:30 when his dinner was delivered. I say that he left the hotel voluntarily shortly after 5:30."

"There was testimony about that. I covered the whole case because it involved Clark."

"Sure. There was one witness—the waiter, who brought the dinner. He says, and believes, that Rako was there, told him to come in, paid for the dinner, and gave him the biggest tip he's ever received in his life. But it wasn't Rako. It was somebody else."

"How do you arrive at that?"

"Rako was supposedly taking a shower with the door partly open when the waiter knocked and Rako called out to him to come in; then told him there was money on the dresser and to take it and keep the change. There's only one thing wrong with the story. You can turn on the shower in those bathrooms and stand inside with the door partly open and you can't hear a knock on the outside door."

And I went on to tell him about running down the deaths of Minetti and Jablonsky.

Hubbard in the Race to Stay

RUSSELLVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Joe Hubbard of Russellville said Thursday he will not quit the Democratic gubernatorial primary race even if he gets no financial support.

Former Army captain said recently that he was running short of campaign funds and had less than $40 in his bank account.

"There may be no one at my campaign party but my wife and I, but we're in the race to stay," Hubbard said.

Catholic Bishops Win Backing

LONDON (AP)—Roman Catholic bishops of Britain won Vatican backing today for their stand against the growth of birth control among Catholics.

Dr. John Heenan, archbishop of Westminster, published a letter from Alfredo Cardinal Ottaviani, secretary of the Sacred Congregation of the Holy Office, giving assurances that he endorses the bishops' stand.

A misunderstanding had developed between Westminster and the Vatican after Dr. Heenan and his fellow bishops warned their flocks last month that contraception was not an open question because "it is against the law of God."

The bishops gave their ruling because many of Britain's four million Roman Catholics believed approval of the oral contraceptive pill might come when the Vatican Ecumenical Council resumes in September.

Sox Back in First With Win Over Orioles

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

The rabbit ball and the flutterball have lifted the Chicago White Sox back into first place in the American League.

The lively rabbit ball was lofted out of Baltimore's huge Municipal Stadium Thursday night by two of Chicago's bunt-and-run specialists — Mike Hershberger and Al Weis — and provided the only runs in a 2-0 victory over the Orioles.

The deadly flutterball was lofted up to home plate by knuckleball specialist Hoyt Wilhelm, who probably has the most deceptive pitch and record in the majors.

Wilhelm came on in relief of Frank Kreutzer for the White Sox in the seventh inning, allowed only one hit and lowered his earned run average to 2.11. That, oddly, goes with a 0-4 record. The 40-year-old right-hander, however, has made 28 appearances and been in 21 winning games.

Baltimore starter Dave McNally gave up only four hits in seven innings, but Hershberger and Weis proved too much for him. Hershberger hit his first homer of the season in the fourth inning and Weis connected for his second in the sixth.

That was more than enough as the White Sox showed the Orioles into second place, seven percentage points behind, while the New York Yankees closed to within one-half game of the top by downing Boston 6-3. In the only other AL game scheduled, Kansas City edged Detroit 3-2.

National League-leading Philadelphia belted the Chicago Cubs 6-3. St. Louis edged San Francisco 7-6 and Pittsburgh crushed the New York Mets 10-0. The other clubs were not scheduled.

Elston Howard and Tom Tresh each drove in two runs for the Yankees while Rollie Sheldon went all the way for his first victory. Howard slammed a two-run triple off loser Jack Lamabe in a four-run, first-inning uprising and Tresh wrapped up the New York scoring with a two-run homer in the seventh.

Ed Charles' leadoff homer in the ninth inning won it for the A's and handed the defeat to his former teammate, Ed Rukow. The Tigers had tied the score in the seventh on Bill Freehan's homer. Kansas City had capitalized on a dropped fly ball by Jake Wood for its other runs in the fourth inning.

All About Dogo

Down With Hole Diggers

Dogs often dig holes because of sheer boredom. Sometimes they'll dig just for exercise, but it all stems from an age-old habit of digging for moles, chipmunks, or other game.

C. C. "Tex" Fawcett, Director of the Purina Dog Care Division, says that you can keep your dog from digging again in that spot.

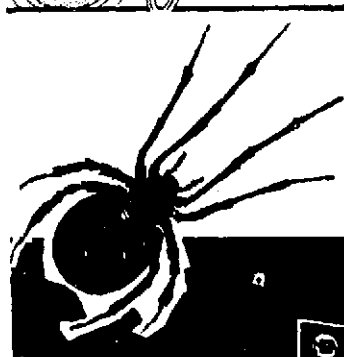

Another way is to fill the hole with crumpled chicken wire will be pugged down. Dogs don't like to dig against wire. You can also fill the hole with stones.

If your dog continues to dig, catch him in the act, scold him sternly and repeat the corrective procedure. He'll soon get discouraged.

In very hot weather dogs sometimes dig holes in order to lie in the cool ground. When this is the reason for digging, bring the dog indoors. See that ample shade and fresh water is provided if he is penned outside.

Black widow spiders are typically shiny black with a scarlet spot on the underside of the abdomen. The male is considerably smaller than the female and has longer legs. It is difficult to induce a black widow spider to bite, but the bite is very dangerous.

Palmer Takes Lead in the Nat'l Open

By JIM BECKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

WASHINGTON (AP)—Arnold Palmer has 198 holes to go on the Grand Slam of golf.

That works out to 54 more holes of the U.S. Open here—18 today and 36 on Saturday—and 72 holes each at the British Open and the PGA. Palmer won the first leg, the Masters, in April.

The British Open is at St. Andrews next month. Palmer might just walk over there on the water. Hardly anyone who watched him trample the brooding, brutal Congressional Country Club course here Thursday would expect Palmer to sink if he undertook the tourney.

Palmer cut a two-under-par 68 out of Congressional — the only player in the field of 150 of the world's best golfers to break par in the opening round. Only one golfer, obscure pro Bill Collins of Baltimore, matched par 70 over the 7,053-yard course, longest ever used for the Open.

All the others were over, including such as: Defending champion Julius Boros, who had 77, including two double bogey sixes on the bank nine.

Champagne Tony Lema, who came to the Open with the hot hand off two straight tour victories, and faded to a 71 after a fine 33 on the front nine.

Jack Nicklaus, the Ohio golden bear and co-favorite with Palmer, who bogied the last three holes for a 72.

Old Sam Snead, at 52 trying for the 24th consecutive time to capture the one big title that has always evaded him, who had a 77 that included four putts from 15 feet on one green.

So widespread was the toll extracted by the course that only 46 less than one-third of the field—broke 75.

And 31 were 80 or above, more than one-fifth of the field. After today, the field will be cut to the low 50 scores and ties—and the way things are going they may have to ask for volunteers.

Johnny Pott, Billy Casper, amateur Billy Campbell and little known club pro Joe Zakarian of Modesto, Calif., joined Lema at 71.

Among the group at 72 was Bob Charles, the left-handed British Open champion from New Zealand, who must have contemplated switching rather than fighting when he played Richard Crawford 35-37-72, a denoted amateur.

Goldwater Will

Goldwater and Scranton who is his 11th hour challenger for the nomination.

That is what Scranton has been trying to do since he launched his campaign last Friday. Goldwater concedes that civil rights is one point on which they disagree.

Scranton quickly sought to turn the Goldwater decision into ammunition for his own cause. In declaring it means Goldwater cannot defeat Johnson next November, Scranton said, "It's overwhelming majority of people in America favor the civil rights bill."

Sens. Kenneth B. Keating and Jacob K. Javits of New York, foes of Goldwater's bid for the nomination, both criticized the senator.

But Ellender said, "If he votes against this bill he is going to give the President a tough battle."

Goldwater himself has said the republicans need the South to win this year.

Goldwater announced his civil rights vote after telling former President Dwight D. Eisenhower about it in a secret flying visit to Gettysburg, Pa.

"We had a general discussion for about an hour," he said back in Washington.

Cards Batter Giant Ace for 7-6 Victory

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

It's the ninth inning and your team is down by a run with two men on. Who do you want as your hitter?

How about Willie Mays? Well, Alvin Dark had him Thursday night, but he'd have been better off with Julian Javier.

The Giants were trailing the Cardinals in just that situation with Willie at the plate in Thursday's 7-6 St. Louis victory. Mays had slammed his 20th homer and two singles earlier but against Ron Taylor in the ninth, he struck out.

Javier, the Cardinal second baseman, did more damage than Mays, cracking a homer, double and single and driving in five of the Cardinal runs. It was a single-game St. Louis RBI high for the season.

The Cardinals, hard-pressed for runs during their recent road trip, battered Giant ace Juan Marichal for 11 hits and all their runs in the five innings he worked. It was Marichal's third loss in 11 decisions.

In other National League games, Pittsburgh belted New York 10-0 and the front-running Philadelphia Phillies dropped Chicago 6-3.

In the American League, Chicago regained first place, edging Baltimore 2-0. New York moved within a half-game of the lead, whipping Boston 6-3 and Kansas City nipped Detroit 3-2.

Ray Sadecki beat the Giants for the second straight time but needed late-inning help from Roger Craig, Mike Cuellar and Taylor. The loss dropped San Francisco a game back of Philadelphia.

The Phillies got two-run homers from Danny Cater and Johnny Callison as Chris Short won his fifth. Cater's first major league homer followed Richie Allen's infield single in the second and Callison's seventh of the season came with Cookie Rojas aboard an inning later.

Ron Santo belted two homers for the Cubs who lost their first series since May 21.

Vern Law won his fourth game in his last five decisions with a strong three-hitter against the Mets. He got all the runs he needed in the first three innings on homers by Donn Clendenon and Willie Stargell, the latter a two-run shot.

A 12-hit Pirate attack handed Al Jackson his seventh straight loss and ran the little lefty's season's mark to 3-10. It was the sixth straight setback for the Mets.

Ford Gives Okay to Jr. College Bill

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Education Commissioner Arch Ford gave his support Wednesday to a proposed constitutional amendment to permit creation of junior college taxing districts.

The Arkansas Education Association opposes the amendment, but it got backing Tuesday from William Dardy of Little Rock, chairman of the state Commission on Co-ordination of Higher Education Finance.

Ford said the constitutional bar against junior colleges should be removed because "I don't favor a constitutional iron curtain against the consideration of any educational problem."

The Helena Chamber of Commerce is trying to collect 38,800 signatures to get the amendment on the November ballot.

The amendment would permit several counties to band together and levy a tax to support a junior college.
